

FACT SHEET

WHERE TO APPLY FOR ENERGY EFFICIENT APPLIANCES

NILS (No Interest Loan Scheme)

Good Money offers No Interest Loans for essential goods and services up to $2000. This can be especially useful households in need of white good such as washing machines, Fridges, dryers or freezers.

Eligibility

To be eligible for NILS you'll need to:

- have a health care card/pension card, or
- have experienced family or domestic violence in the last 10 years, or
- meet the earnings criteria, which is:
- for singles – $70,000 (seventy thousand dollars) per year, before tax
- for couples or people with dependants – $100,000 (one hundred thousand dollars) per year, before tax.

You'll also need to show that you're able to repay the loan in the given time period.

Thrive Matched Savings Program

The Thrive Matched Savings program is tailored for individuals striving to achieve their financial goals, whether that be saving for a washing machine, dryer, fridge, or other white goods. Understanding the challenges many people face in reaching their savings targets, ICAN Thrive offers a matched contribution of up to $500 for every dollar participants save, effectively doubling their savings.

Eligibility

Either the participant or partner have regular income from paid employment or

Receive regular benefits from Centrelink

Total household income must remain under the Australian Bureau of Statistics average annual income. Single income: $93,132. Household Income $116,632.

Must be able to demonstrate through the Thrive Matched Savings Budget process that they have a capacity to save after regular expenses have been paid; and

Have not received matched savings from Thrive Matched Savings before (participant or partner).

GIVIT

GIVIT is a national not-for-profit connecting those who help with those who are in need, in a private and safe way. GIVIT supports all agencies, services and charities in Australia who work directly with impoverished, marginalised and vulnerable people. By working with one of ICAN's employees, they can apply for gift cards, vouchers etc to acquire white goods on your behalf.

